Persons qualified to attend these lectures should neither be ignorant or the worldly wise, nor those liberated ones who have reached their nirvana, freeing themselves from all pain; but only those who conscious of being under bondage, long after freedom from it, and are in that vacillating position, from which they contemplate attaining salvation.

"In the case of persons without discrimination, hearing is a burden to them, in the case of persons without quiescence of mind, their mind is a burden to them; and in the case of persons having passions and other stains, Real knowledge is a burden to them."

MARCH 24, WEDNESDAY, 3:00 P. M.—The Kingdom of Heaven is Within You.

As in a wheel! All sinks to Reascend,
Emblems of man, who passes not expires.

8:00 P. M.—Expansion of the Stream of Consciousness.

Fulfill thou the perfection of truth. Tho' the thunderbolt descend upon thy head, yield thou never to the allurements that beguile men from the path of truth. As the Sun at all seasons pursues his own course, nor ever goes on another—even so if thou forsake not the aboriginal path of Rightness, thou shalt become a Buddha. (The Gospel of Buddha)

SPECIAL ATTENTION

Renew yourself each day completely; do it again and again and forever again. Few people know how to do it. Millions are awake enough for physical labor, but only one in a million is awake enough for effective intellectual exertion; only one in a hundred million for poetic or divine life. To be awake is to be alive. Keep yourself awake not by mechanical means, but by the infinite expectation of the dawn, which does not forsake us in our soundest sleep. I know of no more encouraging fact than the unquestionable ability of man to elevate his life by a conscious endeavor towards the realization of his God-head. In getting all kinds of goods around us, we are still mortal, but in dealing with Truth and Light we become immortal and need fear no change, no accident.
