

GADAR MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Miss Helen Ram

The Hindustan Gadar Party Memorial Library is growing under the able direction of Miss Helen Ram. Among the recent distinguished visitors to the library were Dr. Devahuti, noted Indian historian from Australia, and Dr. Bhagat S. Thind, veteran Indian patriot and lecturer, and his wife.

Dr. Thind very graciously has presented a set of his own books to the library and has pledged all possible help to further the cause of the Gadar Party Memorial. The following titles by Dr. Bhagat S. Thind are the latest additions to our library:

- (1) THE PEARL OF GREATEST PRICE OR NAURATTAN
- (2) RADIANT ROAD TO REALITY
- (3) DIVINE WISDOM
- (4) SCIENCE OF UNION WITH GOD
- (5&6) JESUS CHRIST, VOL. I, AND VOL. II
- (7) HOUSE OF HAPPINESS

Listed below are only a few of the many titles in Urdu, Hindi and Punjabi. Many of them have been donated by Prof. Ved Vatak. This is your library. Donations of books are gratefully accepted.

We invite interested readers to visit our library and enjoy the available literature. If any books or records, which you do not find here, are of sufficient interest, we can order them for you. Tell us what books you want in what language, and we shall try to get them.

About two years ago, S. Karnail Singh, Chairman of the Railway Board, India, was a guest of the Memorial Committee, and publicly pledged to send us some special texts in Punjabi. Unfortunately, so far we have not received anything. If by mistake, they have reached some other destination, we are sending out a public call that they be directed to our right

Our library is also becoming the center of scholarly research into the history of the Gadar Party in particular and the Indian settlers of California in general. Several American students are working on their Master's and doctoral dissertations in the field. We are always glad to provide assistance and material.
